GENERAL INFORMATION

- LUNCH--At 12:05, school will dismiss and students, who are either staying on campus for lunch and/or staying for lunch and FAB, will report to the cafeteria where lunch will be served. Students may pick-up a lunch on their way out if they are not staying or are not required to stay for FAB Wednesday.
- Teachers will require students to sign-in at all FAB sessions.
- There are two different lists administration will use to hold students accountable for staying on campus:
 - 1. The “Mandatory Tutoring” list—this list contains all students who are failing one or more classes and are required to stay on campus for FAB tutoring sessions. This list will be created based on students who are failing at each progress report date throughout the school year. Students placed on the MANDATORY TUTORING list are required to attend FAB until the next six weeks grade posting (progress report date). At this time, grades will be re-evaluated, and a new MANDATORY TUTORING list will be generated.
 - 2. The “Not Allowed to Leave Campus” list—this list contains all students whose parents did not grant them permission to leave at 12:05, regardless of whether they are failing a class.

PLEASE NOTE: ALL students can stay for FAB Wednesdays for tutoring or enrichment. Tutoring is not limited to students who are required (mandatory tutoring list) to stay on campus.

- Students who are on the MANDATORY TUTORING LIST: students who are failing a course DO NOT have to stay until the 3:45 dismissal. Instead, they can attend mandatory tutoring for the course(s) they are failing and then leave at the end of the session. They MUST leave through the front doors of the school if they leave at the end of sessions 1 2, or 3. They will drop off their teacher signed forms at the front doors as they leave. If students stay through session 4, they still need to exit through the front doors of the school and drop off their teacher signed forms as they exit the building.
 - Example: If a student on the mandatory tutoring list is only failing science, he or she can attend science tutoring for session 1 and leave at the end of session 1. He or she will exit through the front doors of the school and drop their teacher signed form off as he or she leaves. However, the student can stay for another science tutoring session or for tutoring for another subject, if they choose to do so.

- Once students enter a FAB session, he or she must stay there until the bell rings to release to the next session. To check-out a student during a FAB session, parents/guardians must go through the attendance office and follow our normal check-out procedures.
- Students who are on the MANDATORY LIST will receive an administrative referral if he or she does not stay for FAB. The discipline consequences will increase if students are written up more than once for failure to stay for FAB.

Frequently Asked Questions:

- Q: Can students leave campus at 12:05 and come back to ride the bus home? Only if the student is a senior. ONLY seniors can leave campus for lunch (if they turned in a permission form at the beginning of the school year) and come back for FAB tutoring.
- Q: If a student, who is not failing a class, wants to stay for tutoring or enrichment, can he or she stay for just one or two sessions and leave early? Yes, but once these students commit to a session, they must stay in the session until the bell rings to dismiss from the session. If they leave before the 3:45 dismissal (meaning at the end of sessions 1, 2, or 3), they can only exit to the student parking lot or through the front doors (car loop).
- Q: Are we telling students where to go (specific teacher, room, etc.)? No, students will choose the tutoring sessions they wish to attend. Most teachers prefer to tutor their own students, but if students choose to attend tutoring with another teacher within the department, they can do so.
- Q: Can students who are on the “Mandatory Tutoring” list attend other school-sponsored FAB activities? They can if they have attended their required tutoring sessions. Attendance at the required tutoring session(s) for courses they are failing will take precedence over optional sessions or school-sponsored activities.

- Q: If a student is failing one or two courses, where do they report during tutoring sessions three and four? Students may report to the media center or cafeteria during sessions three and four.
- Q: If a student is failing at the six weeks grading period and placed on the MANDATORY TUTORING list, but is passing three weeks later, can he or she be removed from the MANDATORY TUTORING list? The only way a student can be removed from the mandatory tutoring list is if a teacher lets our administration know the student can come off the list.
- Q: Where will students turn in their signed forms? ALL students who stay for mandatory tutoring will drop off their teacher signed forms as they exit through the front doors of the school.
- Q: What if a student, who doesn't have to stay because they are failing a course, cannot be picked up until 1:30; can they leave at 1:30? Students can wait in the cafeteria until the end of a session (see tutoring session schedule). At this point, they can be picked up in the car rider loop in the front of the school.
- Q: If senior WBL (work-based learning) students are failing, but must work, what do they do? Mrs. Boyer will monitor grades of senior WBL students and communicate with them on an individual basis.
- Q: Can students on the Mandatory List check out each week if the parent signs them out? No, and if this becomes an issue, administration will deal with this on an individual basis. This has happened in the past, and unfortunately, these students did not benefit from FAB Wednesday tutoring, which resulted in failing courses required for graduation.
- Q: Will students be required to get tardy passes if they are late to a FAB session? Yes
- Q: Are all content areas included on the Mandatory Tutoring List? Yes, if any student is failing any course (not limited to ELA, math, science, and social studies), he or she will be placed on the Mandatory Tutoring List.
