Call to order:

Good News:

Pledge of Allegiance: All

Approval of Minutes: Minutes from the October 22, 2022 meeting

Old Business:

- Tour of the new facility

New Business:

- Move-In Plan/Construction
 - Mrs. Tierce shared the plan for moving into the new STEAM building. CHS students only will have a digital day on Friday, January 13. This will allow the construction company to move student desks into the new facility, and this will provide teachers with a day to move their things into their new classrooms.
- March 1 at 1:00- Economic Development
 - Mrs. Tierce invited the SCC to attend a presentation being held at CHS on March 1. The presenter will be Chris Clark from the Georgia Chamber of Commerce.
- Plan for auxiliary building
 - Mrs. Tierce discussed plans and asked for ideas for what should be housed in the auxiliary building once it is vacated. The SGC members liked the idea of offering on-campus dual enrollment courses, and they mentioned the idea of holding night school classes in this building. They also mentioned the idea of holding classes for adults and using the building as a testing center.
- How do we let people know what we offer?
 - This agenda item will be discussed in more detail at the December meeting, but in the meantime Mrs. Tierce asked the council members to think of ways to better communicate with the community to let them know what courses and pathways we offer at CHS.
- Video for parents
 - Mrs. Tierce discussed making a video to share with CHS families at the end of the semester to share our accomplishments from first semester.
- ITEM ADDED TO THE AGENDA:
 - Mrs. Saunders shared information about ESSER funding. She shared with everyone how our system has spent our ESSER funds and funding through the American Rescue Plan. The funds have been spent based on input from each school.

- Mrs. Saunders shared the ESSER Funding Transparency Dashboard, and she shared an updated spreadsheet outlining where all funds have been spent. She also shared where everyone can find this information on our school system's website. (go to the website---departments---federal programs)
 - Mrs. Saunders shared that Canes Camps will be held again this summer.
- Next Inspiration – December 15, 2022
 - Next Meeting – December 15, 2022 @ 7:30am
 - Adjournment @8:45 by Shelley Tierce 2nd Mark Mathison
